5. Site security from 4/1/03- 7/31/03 will be provided by separate Job Corps funding and need not be proposed. The purpose of this separate funding is to insure there is no gap in site security on this new center. Contractors can propose security costs which are part of the build-up to regular security costs of the center. For example: during the start-up period there may be costs to hire and train security personnel, the proposing contractor may deem it necessary to provide security for the interior of the buildings and their contents, etc.

THE FOLLOWING NOTES ARE PROVIDED FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY:

6. Note: The government will provide the necessary equipment/furniture to support the vocational trades "after" award of the contract. The bid package "should not" contain cost estimates for such items. All costs to support the suggested trades(salaries, supplies etc) should be contained and described on the ETA 2110 and ETA 2181 provided forms -per PRH requirements as needed.

7. Note: As depicted in the Statement of Work of the FRP, (C.3, C.24), as well as PRH requirements (3.24), the center operator is responsible to provide career transition readiness to students. This on-center portion of the Career Transition Period requirement is covered by center operation funds. The prospective awardee will plan for appropriate staffing and coordinate the on-center CTS activities with the separate contractor who provides the post-center Career Transition Services for the Exeter JCC graduates and former enrollees.
